Halloween Event

The longest running Saltair tradition going on for over 40 years is beginning preparations and needs the community's help.

They are looking for volunteers and any ideas for the festivities. If you can aid in any way please contact Saltairdra@gmail.com.

Schedule

Concession Opens 6pm | Costume Judging 7:15pm | Fireworks 8pm
Come down Halloween night to warm yourself by the fire with a hotdog and hot chocolate.

Next Director Meeting

In case you are not on Facebook Jesse McClinton announced he is having a meeting on October 4th, next Saturday in the Saltair Community Center 11:00 am- 12:00pm. On the agenda is explaining the proposed changes to Saltair land use, that will allow the division of larger residential parcels into one acre lots. The upcoming Lagoon Bridge repairs and road maintenance. Saltair Community Center upgrades. 2026 CVRD budget priorities. Socking Lake Dam and water filtration as well as slope stability. Important guest MLA Stephanie Higgison will be in attendance. Come participate and shape your local community.

Developments From Last Month Topics

Director Jessie supported the motion to have Saltair exclusively contain minimum 1 acre lots. On September 12th, he spoke at the Town Hall Meeting in Area H (The Diamond) where a map of Saltair was displayed.
